

State of Washington
Department of Transportation
Notice to Consultants
Tribal Transportation Data Base Development

The Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT) solicits interest from consultants who wish to be evaluated and considered for Tribal Transportation Data Base Development. The approximate dollar value of the consultant agreement will be $70,000. WSDOT may award one (1) agreement. This agreement will be for approximately nine (9) months in duration.

Firm(s) Selected:

- |                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                              |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| 1. Valerie J. Southern – Transportation Consultant, LLC3849 Klahanie Drive SE, Suite 8-201Issaquah, WA 98029Contact: Valerie J. SouthernSub-Consultants: Beluga Software, Inc. | PH: 425-557-2239FX: 425-557-2353None |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|